

1.1.3 While planning institutional curriculum, focus is kept on the Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning

1. Website of the Institution
2. Prospectus
3. Student induction programme
4. Orientation programme for teachers

A.	Student Induction	Dates	Activities
	Induction of S.Y.B.Ed Theory and Practical	21st August 2023	This orientation included an overview of the curriculum, highlighting key subjects, instructional methods, and assessment criteria. It also covered program objectives, core competencies, and practical components such as teaching practice or internships. By providing a clear understanding of the syllabus, the orientation ensured that students were well-prepared to navigate their coursework, engage effectively with the material, and meet academic and professional goals.
	Induction of Internship Phases and practice Teaching	28th August 2023	The students were instructed to apply their instructional strategies, classroom management techniques, and pedagogical theories learned throughout their coursework. The teachers instructed them to observe experienced teachers, engage with diverse student populations, and refine their teaching skills in a real classroom environment.
	Induction of F.Y.B.Ed.	22nd November 2023	To introduce students to the faculty, management, and support staff, creating. Provided an overview of the B.Ed program, its structure, curriculum, and expectations, ensuring students comprehend the academic journey ahead. Familiarized students with the teaching staff, their areas of expertise, and their commitment to delivering quality education, fostering trust and rapport. Outlined institutional policies, rules, and guidelines, ensuring students understand the academic and administrative framework. Introduced students to available support services, such as counselling, library resources, and academic assistance, ensuring they are aware of avenues for academic and personal support.

B.	Teachers Orientation	Dates	Activities
	Staff Orientation	4th July 2023	Principal explained the changes made in the curriculum ie., syllabus, new value-added courses, new curricular patterns, introduction of new constructivist lesson plan, changes in teaching methodologies,
	Orientation programme for skill development of teachers by the Management	12th October 2023	The management organised the programme for teachers for developing the skills of teachers which is essential for fostering effective education and improving student outcomes.
	N-list Orientation Programme	30th March 2024	Procedure to be followed to enroll in the E-library resources which is helpful to teachers for teaching learning process and Research and development
	Pre University Examination Orientation Programme	6th April 2024	This orientation typically included detailed briefings on exam formats, content coverage, and assessment criteria, ensuring that teachers are well-informed about the specific requirements and expectations of the exams. Additionally, it often involved training on best practices for preparing students, including developing study plans, providing targeted feedback, and implementing effective revision techniques.