Criterion I

Curricular Aspects

1.1: Curriculum Planning

1.1.2

The programme of action for in- house curriculum planned and adopted during the last completed academic year

A Programme of Action by a Curriculum Planning Committee at the institute outlines the steps and strategies to be implemented to develop and refine the curriculum. Here's a structured approach followed by this institute:

Assessment of Current Curriculum

- Review and evaluate the existing curriculum.
- Gather feedback from faculty, students, and stakeholders.
- Identify strengths, weaknesses, and areas for improvement.

Setting Objectives

- Define clear goals and objectives for curriculum enhancement.
- Align objectives with educational standards, regulatory requirements, and institutional vision.

Research and Benchmarking

- Conduct research on current trends and best practices in education.
- Benchmark against other B.Ed. programs and institutions.

Stakeholder Engagement

- Involve faculty, students, alumni, and education professionals in the planning process.
- Organize workshops, focus groups, and surveys to gather input.

Curriculum Design and Development

- Develop or revise curriculum frameworks, including course content, pedagogical methods, and assessment strategies.
- Ensure the curriculum is inclusive, relevant, and promotes critical thinking and practical skills.

Resource Planning

- Identify and allocate necessary resources, including textbooks, digital tools, and training materials.
- Plan for faculty development and training on new curriculum components.

Implementation Plan

- Develop a timeline for rolling out the revised curriculum.
- Create a detailed implementation plan, including pilot programs and phased rollouts if necessary.

Monitoring and Evaluation

- Establish mechanisms for ongoing assessment of the curriculum's effectiveness.
- Collect data on student performance, feedback, and outcomes to evaluate the success of the curriculum changes.

Continuous Improvement

- Use evaluation results to make iterative improvements to the curriculum.
